SHOWDOWN

Have you always wanted to get in the goat show ring, but are not sure what to do or how to prepare? Do you think you have the next grand champion but need help getting them in the ring? Maybe you are looking for your next doe or market weather prospect to transport you to the winners circle. Perhaps you would just like to enhance your herd with good breeding stock but are having trouble locating or selecting the right animals.

The Spectacular Goat Showdown and Sale is the event that will answer all those questions and give you an opportunity to hone your showmanship skills in a stress-free and enjoyable environment.
